Senior Poem

Adieu to North High

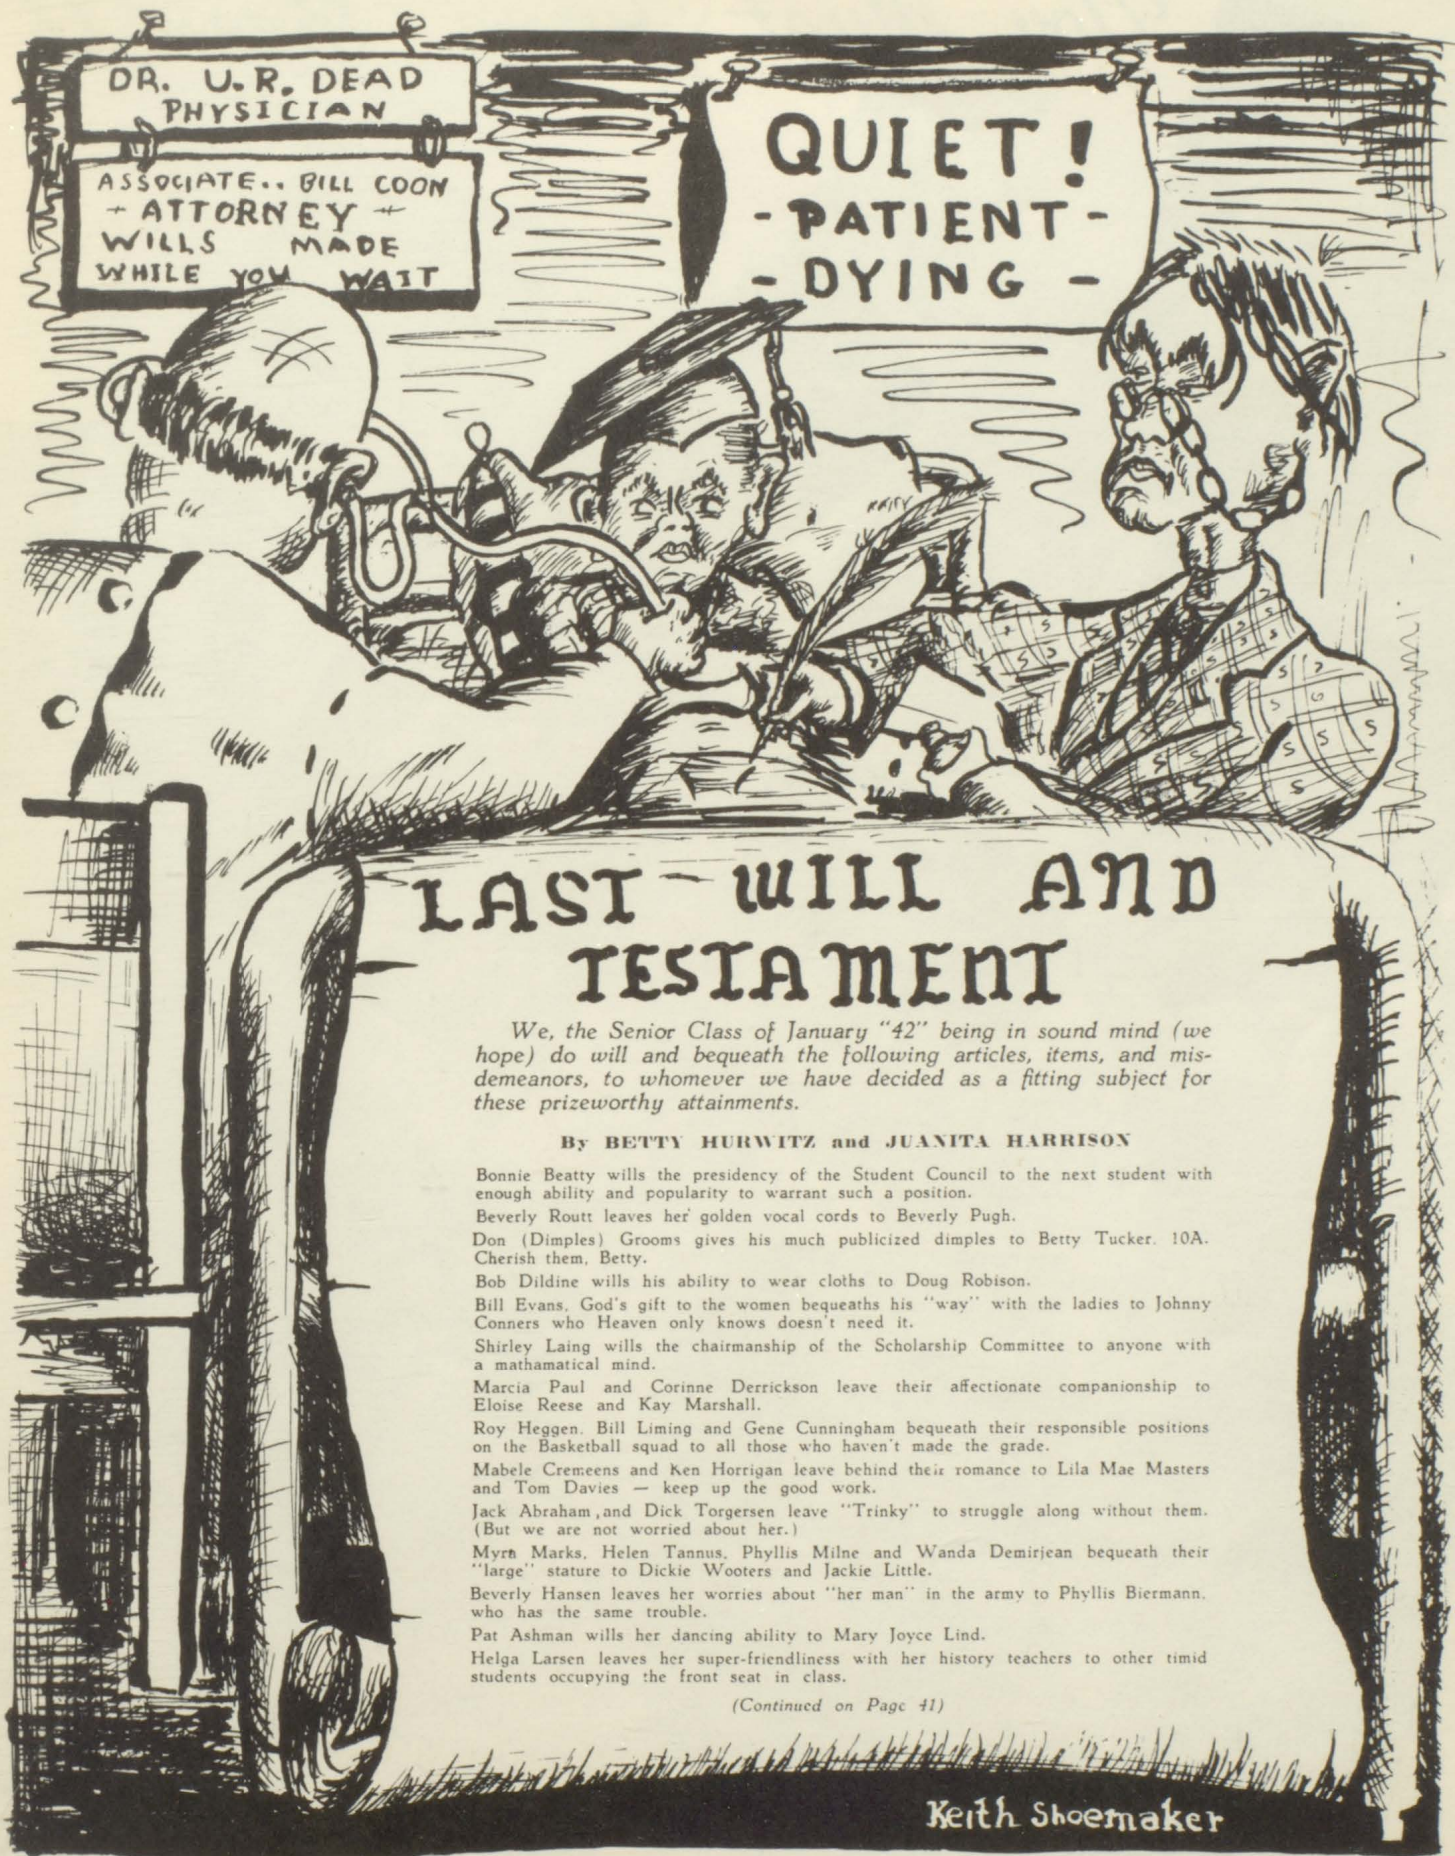

One by one the hours are fleeting,
One by one the days pass by,
Soon the time when we'll be saying
Fond adieu to old North High.

One by one the tasks await us,
Some may take to fields afar,
But no future however trying
Shall our happy memories mar.

Every place that we may travel,
Whether here or foreign clime,
We'll be working for ideals
Of the school we left behind.

So it is with some regretting,
That we pass from old North High,
Looking forward, but not forgetting,
Work and faith we must apply.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of January "42" being in sound mind (we hope) do will and bequeath the following articles, items, and misdemeanors, to whomever we have decided as a fitting subject for these prizeworthy attainments.

By BETTY HURWITZ and JUANITA HARRISON

Bonnie Beatty wills the presidency of the Student Council to the next student with enough ability and popularity to warrant such a position.

Beverly Routt leaves her golden vocal cords to Beverly Pugh.

Don (Dimples) Grooms gives his much publicized dimples to Betty Tucker. 10A. Cherish them, Betty.

Bob Dildine wills his ability to wear cloths to Doug Robison.

Bill Evans, God's gift to the women bequeaths his "way" with the ladies to Johnny Conners who Heaven only knows doesn't need it.

Shirley Laing wills the chairmanship of the Scholarship Committee to anyone with a mathematical mind.

Marcia Paul and Corinne Derrickson leave their affectionate companionship to Eloise Reese and Kay Marshall.

Roy Heggen, Bill Liming and Gene Cunningham bequeath their responsible positions on the Basketball squad to all those who haven't made the grade.

Mabele Cremeens and Ken Horrigan leave behind their romance to Lila Mae Masters and Tom Davies — keep up the good work.

Jack Abraham, and Dick Torgersen leave "Trinky" to struggle along without them. (But we are not worried about her.)

Myra Marks, Helen Tannus, Phyllis Milne and Wanda Demirjean bequeath their "large" stature to Dickie Wooters and Jackie Little.

Beverly Hansen leaves her worries about "her man" in the army to Phyllis Biermann, who has the same trouble.

Pat Ashman wills her dancing ability to Mary Joyce Lind.

Helga Larsen leaves her super-friendliness with her history teachers to other timid students occupying the front seat in class.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB:

FIRST ROW: Don Werner.
 SECOND ROW: Robert Morgan, Ary van Arkel
 THIRD ROW: Gene Toulouse, Frank Bumpilori, Keith Bullington.
 FOURTH ROW: Arlen Miller, Dick Porter, Verl Koons, Max Kaldenberg.
 FIFTH ROW: Gene Emerling, Adam Johnson, Fritz Unmack, Louie Weertz, Frank Rice.

Under the dynamic leadership of Miss Rickards the North High singing groups have reached a high standard of vocal efficiency. The A Cappella Choir has sung for numerous organizations throughout the city and has frequently been praised by professional musicians. The boys and girls glee clubs, though less pretentious, are equally popular and furnish a training field for the choir.

In the Christmas assembly these singers furnished, along with the orchestra, the background for most of the program. With a gothic backdrop and stained glass windows behind, and subdued blue lights in front, their harmonies carried the auditors back to the historic days of European cathedrals.

BAND

The marching band for the fall of 1941 has been particularly active. The first appearance of the marching band was on September 17, at which time the band marched in the Odd Fellows parade.

Most formations were of a patriotic nature. The combined bands in some instances formed the words "KEEP 'EM FLYING", "KEEP IT FLYING", "USA", and "N". During the formation "KEEP IT FLYING" the color guards for the American Legion Posts of the city marched to the center of the field and the bands played the "Star Spangled Banner".

At the close of the marching season, the band turned its efforts to concert music in key with the national emergency.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra has many special accomplishments to its credit. The North High Orchestra was the first group in the city to play in an inter-school concert. It was also the first orchestra in the city to play a regular scheduled concert in the evening.

Other appearances of the orchestra consisted of playing music for the dramatic presentation of "Spring Fever" and the Christmas program.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

It took the dramatic art department a little while to recover from all those explosions that went on during the production of this semester's all-school play, "Spring Fever".

Undine Southworth was so surprised at the first explosion, that she nearly decided to call it quits for a while. In fact it was rather shocking to everyone except Roger Glasgow, who absolutely delighted in his "little percussions." It took a lot of persuading to convince him that he must bang away only at the right moments.

It seemed that everyone was well satisfied with his role, but Louis Sacco became so engrossed in his part of Prof. Bean, that he nearly decided to pursue the career of teaching. The only regret that Mabele Cremeens and Doris Pitts (Mrs. Spangler) had was that they were forced to wear the same dress in all three acts.

* * * * *

Only about half of the talent in the advanced dramatics class appeared before the footlights this semester. The rest of the class worked long and hard on settings, make-up, properties, and on other phases in the production of a play. These people will step into the acting shoes next semester.

The activities of the Dramatic Department are not confined to the all-school play. The interest of the dramatics class of ten centers around the Little Theatre stage where many plays are presented. More than twenty-five plays were put on this semester before Christmas.

The Dramatic Department is a very busy one, and here's hats off to a very able instructor, Miss Pearl Hausen!

Just Gabbin'

By BUD MANTZ

Just Gabbin'

The starting gun in any given semester for the past five years — George Gonias, chinning himself on F. J.'s desk . . . They say "The meek shall inherit the earth" — I don't know about the meek, but both Bonita (Bonnie) Beaty, who heads the Student Council, and Roy Heggen, who is Senior Class President, are two of the quietest people I know . . . Mose Jenck's comments in his classes directed toward those who had the misfortune to be members of the football squad, didn't seem to have the right affect this year — (Maybe it would help if he got a new line) — Anyway, North suffered the most disappointing season in it's history — After we had lost the first three games, a revised lineup whipped Lincoln — Then in the hardest fought battle of the year, we lost a heartbreaking decision to Roosevelt — Lost by a toe — The irony in the East game — East ahead twenty to nothing so the cheerleaders started up — "Will We Beat East?" — Now for the sixty-four dollar question.

Out and Around

Seems as if only the most hardened wolves could stand the dance-hungry gaze of the female population long enough to flip a heel at the Social Hours — Amazing isn't it! How those strong, silent men can pick up the women — Johnny Conners is still going steady — from one girl to another . . . Wonder why the football team's favorite historical character is John Paul Jones? — The pep assemblies this year were the best we've had for quite some time — Maybe in the years to come North High will once again have the fine moral it had ten or fifteen years ago — Wonder where the members of this year's senior class will be???? — Imagine Bill Evans as an Insurance Salesman — Betty Hurwitz at the head of Des Moines society — Jack Abraham, "Major General J. S. Abraham, Commander of United States Forces in the East" — Jeanne Lorey as a second Dorothy Thompson — Lefty Erickson as Chief of Police — George Gonias as the owner of the biggest, the best "Hot Spot" in the middlewest — Dick Torgerson as the financial backer of the Mammouth Munitions Plant — "Bullets with a bang" — Mabele Cremeens and Kenny Horrigan as co-owners of the Biggest Hotel West of the Mississippi — "We specialize in Bomb Shelters" — Verle Coons as head of "Snappy Picture Productions" producer of such films as "After the War is Over" and "Why Husbands Leave Home", which made movie history — Bill Liming as Former Coach of the North High Polar Bears "who has just been signed at a reported salary of $10 000 a year to head the coaching staff of Midwest Institute" — Rachele Chader as owner-manager of that exclusive store for women, the "Madamoiselle" — Roger Glasgow as a U. S. Senator . . . 50% of the boys as dust under "little white crosses row on row."

One for the Books

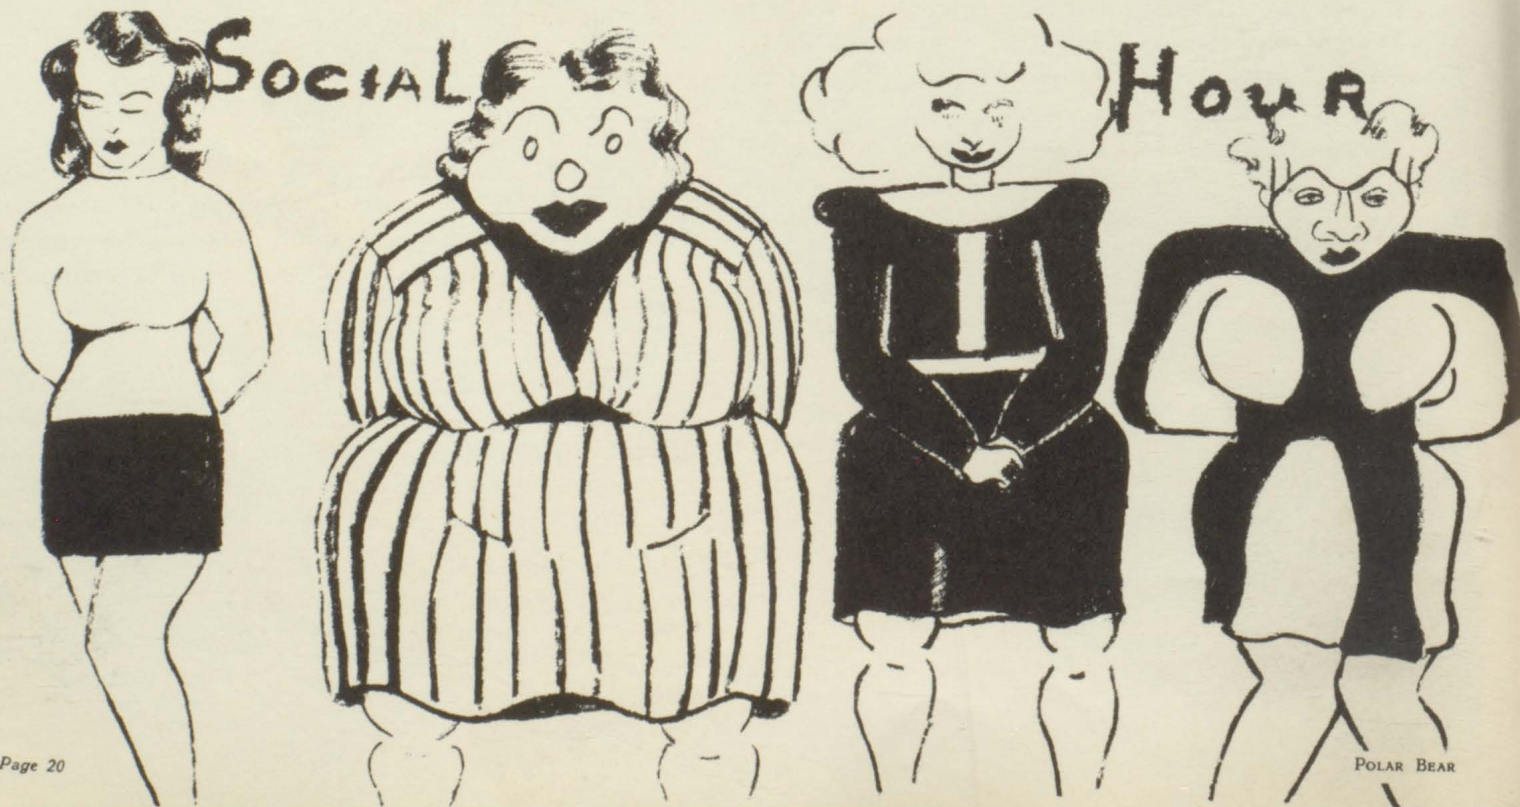

Bill (Roughouse) Brown really got it in the neck at the Senior's "Hard Time" party. Bill, one of the chosen few who had the misfortune to be picked as participants (that means practically the same thing as "Get in the Game") in that nerve wracking (termites?) ordeal known as "Truth or Consequence", was forced to pay the horrible consequence of Pillow Fighting "husky" Myra Marks. Bill was handicapped by a blindfold, while Myra was free, but she could have had both feet lashed to the floor, given two strikes and still have walked to first on "Brain's" wild pitches. When the dust had settled (I'm not kidding) Brown had already surrendered to Japan, Germany, and Italy and promised on his knees he wouldn't hit any more blind old ladies.

Supposedly to stop his tears he was awarded a sucker as a prize, but those in the know say that the real reason was to give him an excuse to keep his lips puckered up!!!

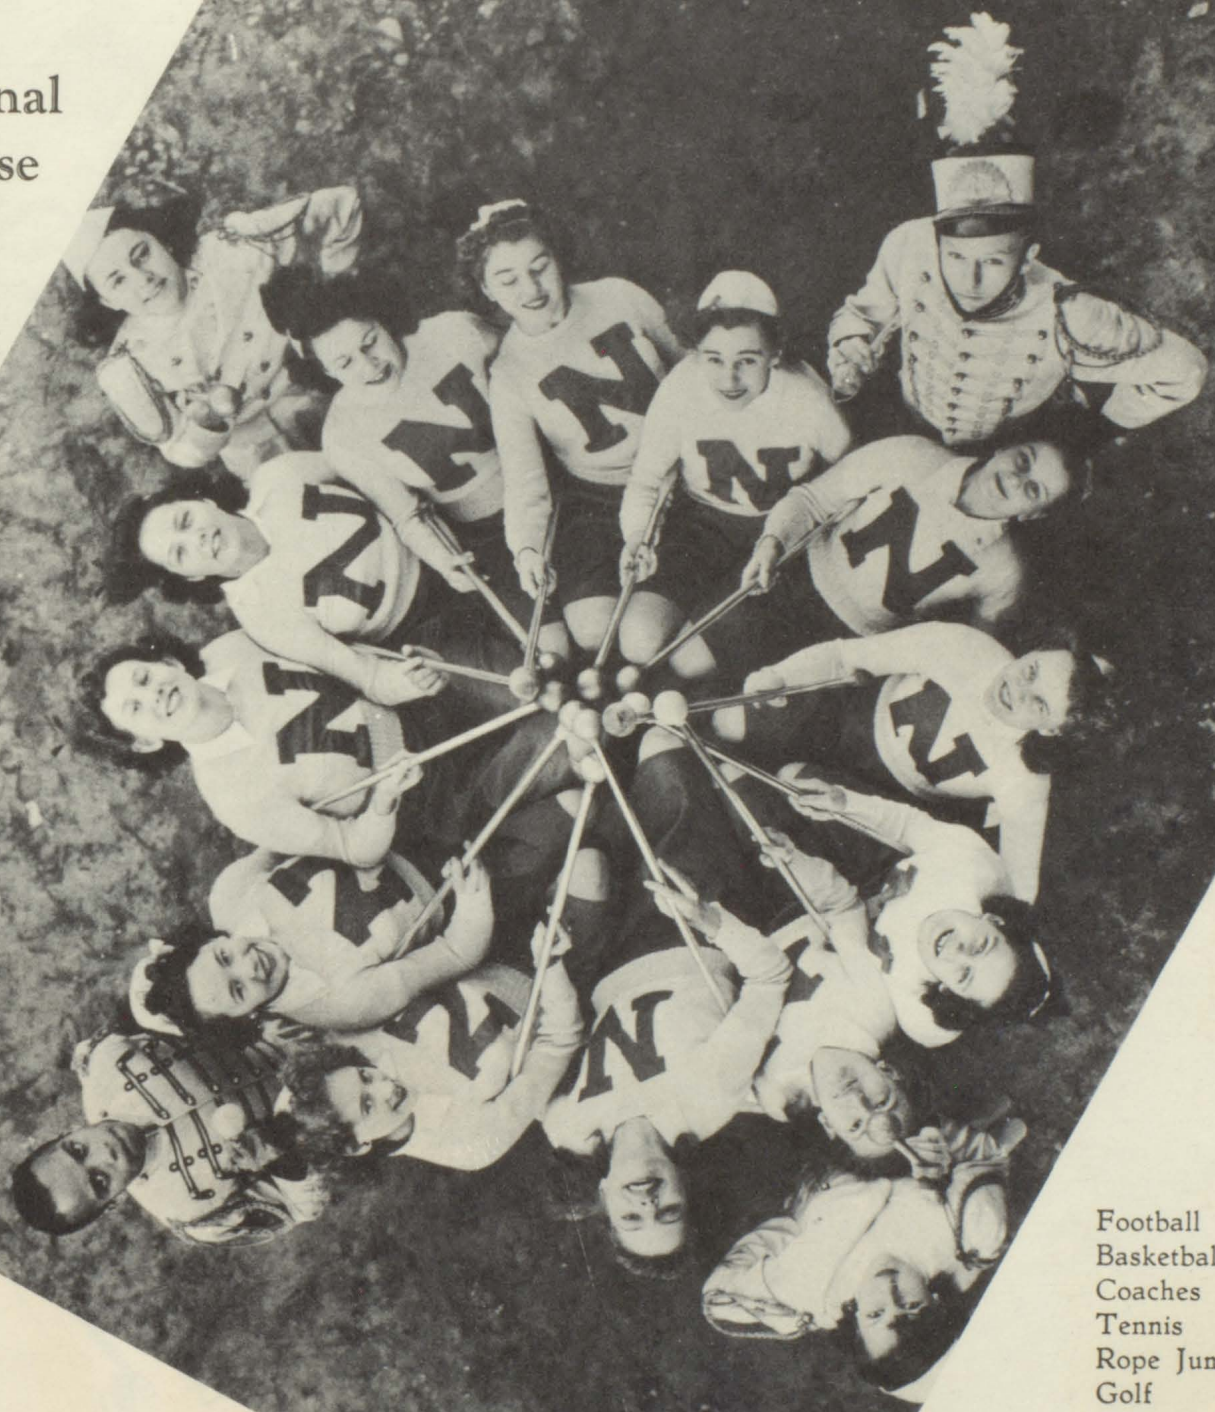

Ever Notice

George Gonias tap dancing to the pencil sharpener — The way Sally Crosby practically knocks herself out laughing — This year's talent assembly and Roger Glasgow picking apples off of an imaginary tree — The crowd at Jonesville on a Saturday night — M. A. Jencks' casual greeting "Hello Fred, this is Mose" when calling Mr. Mier on the phone — Bill Rourke's love of the last word — Bill Patterson's perfect manners — G. J. Jackson's sarcasm — Mr. Beasley's way of starting a lecture to the class, becoming interesting in the antics of a couple of the students, and forgetting what he's talking about — Mr. Roy Heggen's laconic comment to an East basketball player last year while they were fighting for the ball, "Hey, don't spit on the floor" — How small the 10B's look to a senior.

Football

As regular school started in September, there were several jobs that had to be done. The most important was the reorganization of the football team. To produce a team like the one in '40 was really a job! First and main point that had to be considered was the hard fact that experience was a thing of the past. The team for '41 was fresh out!

The first casualties were:

MASON CITY—7
JEFFERSON—20
NORTH—0
NORTH—8
NORTH—0
LINCOLN—6

Jefferson was the most disheartening disappointment. With as capable team as in years before, the Polar Bears were literally run aground as Jefferson's pony-backs showed no pity. It was sweet revenge for a smaller school to upset a large city school. Next came Ft. Dodge.

With a back-ground of students that hung on for a North victory all through the season, the Polar Bears hopped all over Lincoln. It was a revised line-up that took the field and proved that there was a spark of fire

FIRST ROW:

Bill Evans, Jack Abraham, Billy Neal, George Gonias, Darryel Cherry, Don Grooms, John Connors, Richard Hosmer, Bill Brown, Bill Martin, Don Hill.

SECOND ROW:

THIRD ROW:

waiting to be revived. Running, passing, alertness and fine kicking played the starring role in the Bear's victory.

It is needless to say there was an empty feeling in the stomachs of North players as the Roosevelt Rough-Riders handed us another loss. With a powerful running attack and passes from every corner of the field, the Polar Bears kept the Riders at bay most of the evening. It was a well aimed kick that decided the final point, and put Roosevelt out in front!

Lead by super-speed backs, Valley of West Des Moines, out-pointed the North eleven.

CENTERVILLE—NORTH Postponed

Old man weather let the rain clouds take over the playing field, thus preventing a possible victory for North.

EAST—26 NORTH—0

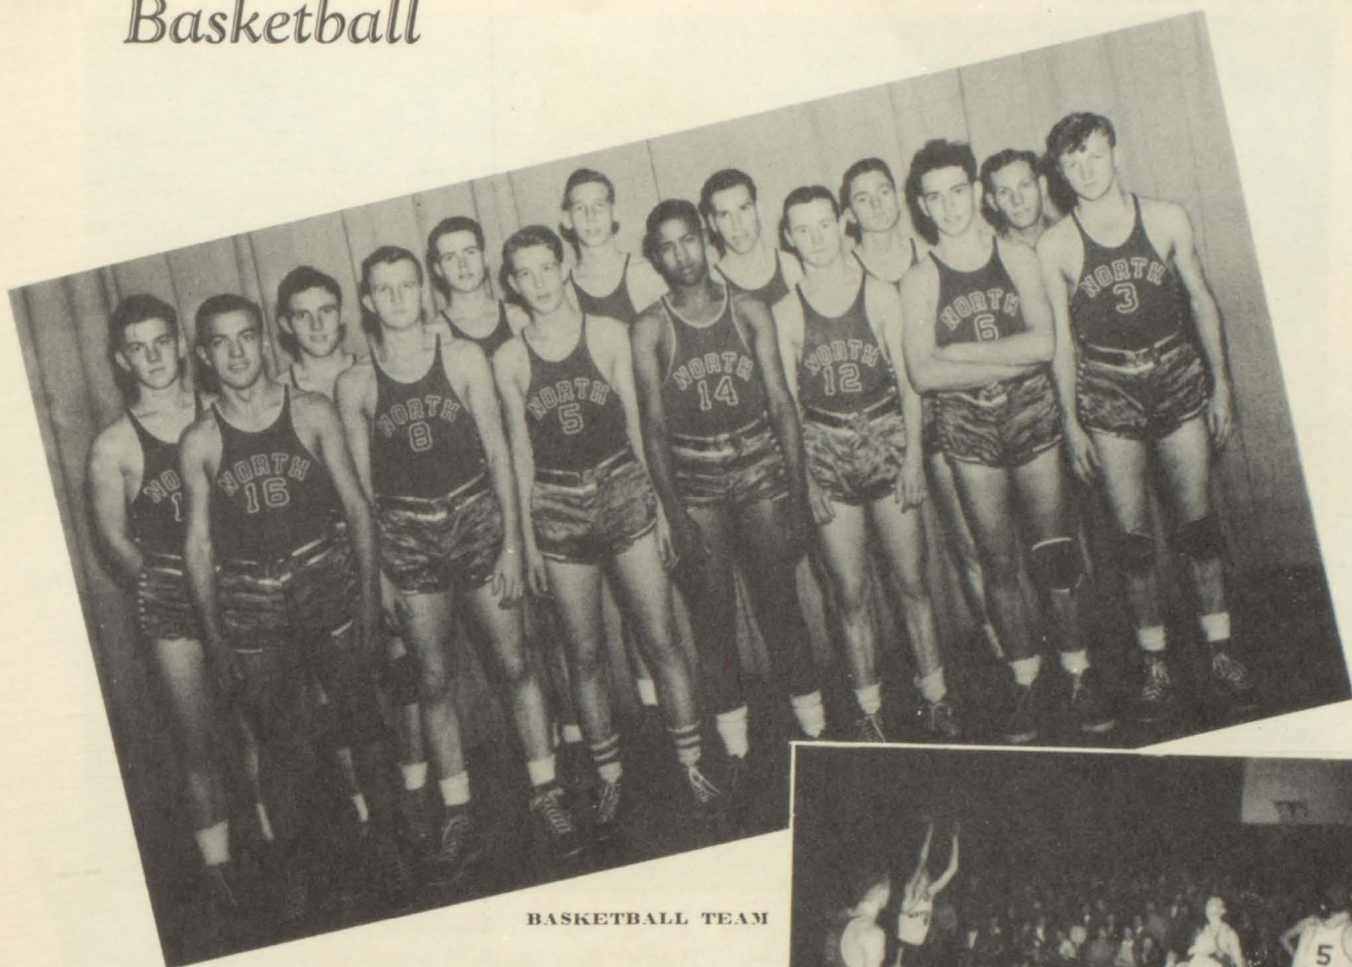

Before a crowd of some 9,500 football loving fans, North Polar Bears took the field against their strong East opponents. It was a powerful North running attack that out-gained the East team during the first half. As the second half opened it was the East team that took the field with a seven point lead. Their display of exceptional fine blocking put their backs in such a position as to run the Polar Bears' defense ragged. The game ended showing a top heavy score in East's favor, but it cannot be said that the North team quit for a minute.

"So ends my last football season for North High School. It is my honest opinion that this school possesses the finest coach in the city, if not in the state. As for student and faculty support, this swell school cannot be beat. It is with much regret that I leave this background of North behind."

—Capt. Jack Abraham.

Basketball

BASKETBALL TEAM

FIRST ROW: Bill Liming, Don Melaas, Wendell Harbour, Kenny Brown, Dale Spencer, Louis Weertz, Roy Heggen.

POLAR BEAR

The Polar Bear quintet this season started out by leading the Big Seven Conference at the time this supplement went to press. They were led by the sharpshooting Don Melaas, versatile forward and Bill Dougall, chunky guard. Bill Liming and Roy Heggen also contributed good floor games with Art McCune holding down the pivot post.

Don Melaas, Art McCune and Bill Liming held down the Polar Bear forward line and came through with the majority of the points, although Bill Dougall and Roy Heggen get the points when they are really needed and hold down the chores of the back court.

North's schedule this season was probably the heaviest that any North squad has played. After being stopped by Newton in the first game, the Polar Bears found themselves and immediately went into their winning stride.

In case North fans are inclined to become too optimistic over the team's success, they should remember that Bill Liming and Roy Heggen will graduate in mid-year.

Athletic Aids

Mrs. Anderson, commonly called "Andy" by her students, has been an instructor at North for several years. "Andy" has coached seven consecutive city champion tennis teams. She is active in all sports, and is well liked by all the students.

North's new swimming and track coach, Francis Cretzmeyer, is living up to our expectations as a competent coach. "Cretz" is a former University of Iowa track star.

Our school's golf team would be lost without Moses Jencks. To him, golf is the best game going, a game for all ages and all classes.

In his years at North High, Arden (Mac) McClain has coached many outstanding athletes. While at Grinnell, he was star end and quarterback. During his time at North, he has won a place in the hearts of all.

Walter Besley, one of the history teachers at North, tutors the boy's tennis and wrestling teams. "Walt" also is in charge of football equipment.

Vim and vigor of North High is Norma Becker. Her interest is music; she expresses it by teaching dancing in her gym classes.

In the Swing

ROPE JUMPERS — These girls who are outstanding in their ability as rope jumpers, execute some very intricate patterns. The girls have given numerous demonstrations over the city and appeared at the Knoxville Veterans' Hospital. They are: Doris Richardson, Donna Webber, Marjorie Anderson, Alice Kerstein, Patsy Boyd, Darlene Peterson and Patsy Knight.

GIRLS' GOLF — The North High girls' golf team placed second in the city tournament, which was held on the Grandview Golf Course. These girls will all be here for the coming season of golf. They are, left to right: Floreen Slater, Barbara Senechal, Phyllis Young, Louise Gibson, Frieda De Sleet, Annabelle Bent, Nadine Bosley and Delores Upstill.

TENNIS — The girls tennis team has been winners of the City High School Tournaments for the seventh consecutive semester. Most of the members of the team are graduating but there are others capable of taking their places. In the first round of the tournament this semester not a North High girl lost. In the singles Marjorie Anderson came through to the finals, in the doubles the team of Donna Webber and Darlene Peterson came through and won the championship. The girls are, left to right: Joan McIntire, Shirley Whitmer, Phyllis Wood, Darlene Peterson, Donna Weber, Patsy Knight and Marjorie Anderson.

FIRST ROW: Arlee Phipps, Pat Knight, Nadene Bosley, Jean Mulchy, Janet Jordan, Jewell Zimmermann, Patsy Boyd.

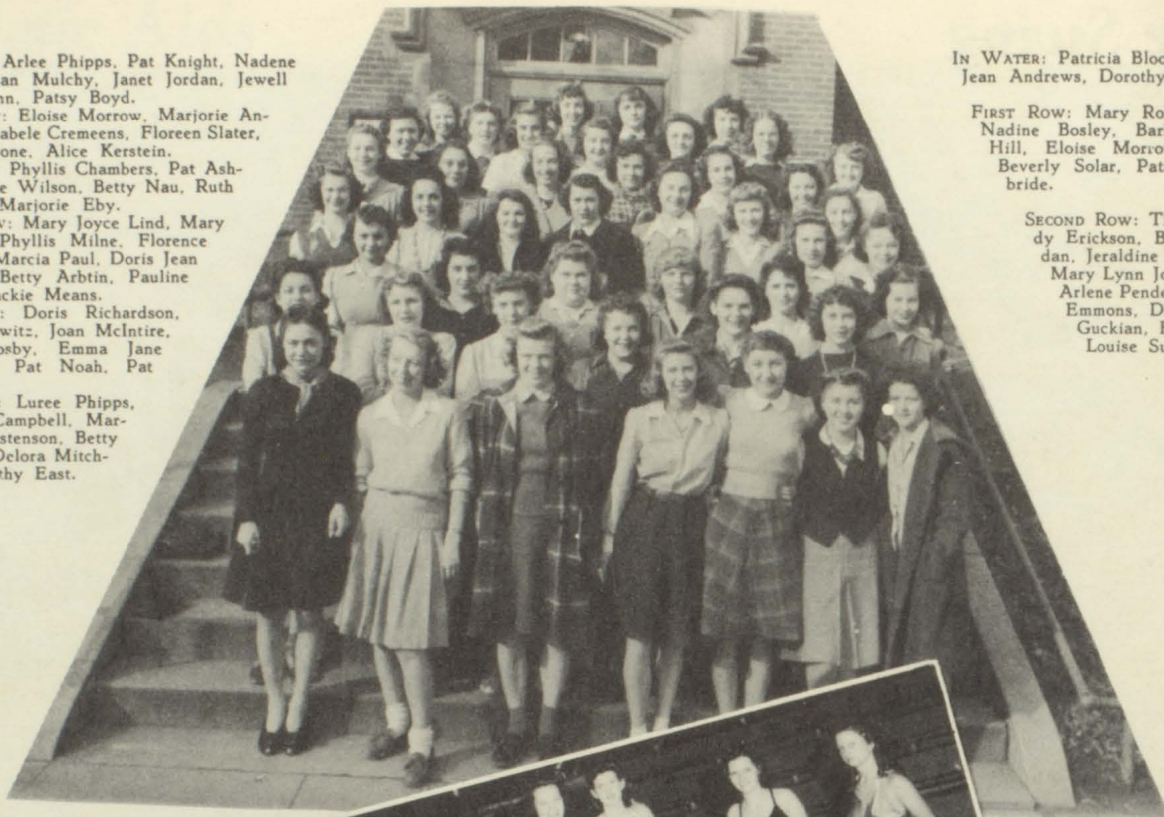

SECOND ROW: Eloise Morrow, Marjorie Anderson, Mabele Cremeens, Floreen Slater, Katie Melone, Alice Kerstein.

THIRD ROW: Phyllis Chambers, Pat Ashman, Roxie Wilson, Betty Nau, Ruth Balanoff, Marjorie Eby.

IN WATER: Patricia Bloomberg, Shirley Basset, Jean Andrews, Dorothy East, Alice Kirstein.

FIRST ROW: Mary Roberts, Jane Couchman, Nadine Bosley, Barbara Massman, Sally Hill, Eloise Morrow, Esther Robertson, Beverly Solar, Patsy Boyd, Nancy Gilbride.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION STUDENT LEADERS — There are forty-five Student Leaders, whose duties consist of helping to direct dancing, swimming and other sports. Some of them serve as secretaries, and equipment checkers. They are of great assistance to the department in that they assist in many activities that can be carried on at one time, due in a large measure to their efficient co-operation.

The swimming group includes the Life Savers and some of the girls working on the rhythmic swimming demonstration. Some of these girls serve as leaders in the various swimming groups, such as Life Saving, diving, beginning intermediates, and advanced.

GOLF TEAM

The 1941 golf season as far as winning was concerned, was perhaps what you would not call successful. But, success is not always determined by the number of matches won. The team, young, inexperienced, and the season just closed taught them a great deal about competitive play and gave them experience that they had not as yet had.

The team was made up of individuals who like competition: to learn even though they lost in doing this. The 1942 season is the season that we are counting on and as we only lost one or two veterans of past season, look out for us next year.

SWIMMERS

The Polar Tank Squad is "under new management" this season, and as we go to press it appears that Coach Francis X. Cretzmeyer is doing a very capable job. The swimming team showed Roosevelt High's star-studded squad tougher competition in the city opener than it had seen in local dual meets for quite some time.

With a back-bone of seven lettermen and considerable support from less experienced lower classmen, the team has attacked city competition with determination, and has promised to bring home a large share of state meet honors in the second semester.

Oracle

At last you can see what the staff of the Oracle looks like. Often times you've seen some of them dash madly down to the office, or up to 213, where the business part of the publications is handled.

Maybe you've wondered who the head man is on the Oracle staff. Well, it's not a man at all — it's a girl. Her name is Jeanne Lorey, and her title is Editor-in-Chief. Next to her on the right is the Make-up Editor who really has had his weekly work-out and who is always willing to do his share. That's right, I mean Bud Mantz. Next to Bud is the cool but efficient Managing Editor, Betty Hurwitz.

On the left of the Editor is "Pete" Peterson, Circulation Manager. He's the one responsible for your getting the papers to home rooms on Fridays. Next to Pete is Betty Kleywegt, better known as "Aunt Betsy", features editor.

Standing are Sally Crosby, Campus Editor and Rachelle Chader, Society Editor. Sally had charge of getting news for the front page and Rachelle for the fourth or society page.

They look too happy to be making a deadline. Mr. Van Laningham says if any editor is "happy" around the deadline time, something surely is wrong.

These handsome gentlemen, from left to right, are: Jack Abraham and Bill Evans who took over sports editing (so Bill Liming could play basketball), Sidney Pruce (who also sells advertising), Roy Heggen (one of the writers of the "Passing the Buck Column") and Bill Patterson (who sells, writes, and "advises").

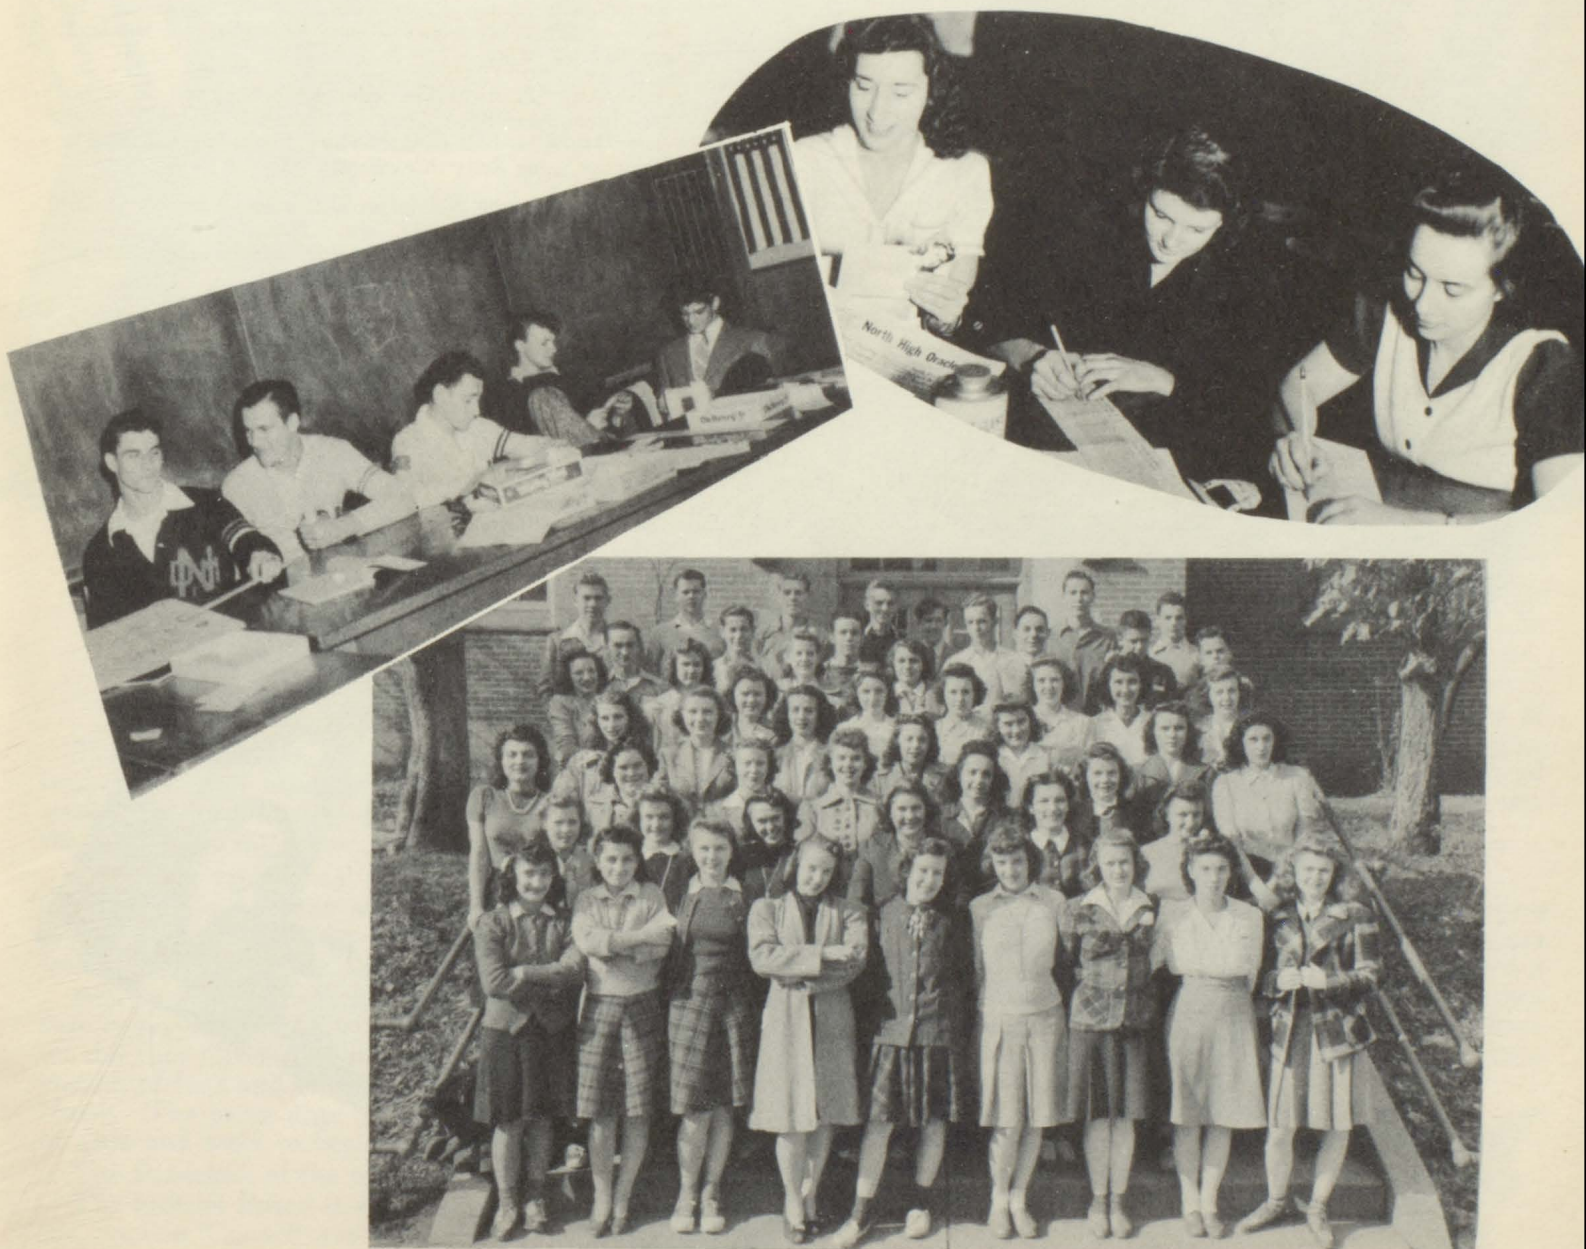

These girls look busy, and they usually are. In industrious formation, they are, to your right, and, left to right: Juanita Harrison, Pauline Schoonover and Helen Tannus.

The Journalism Cubs sell advertising, hopefully submit stories to awe-inspiring editors, sharpen pencils, absorb journalistic atmosphere, struggle over reports on news-writing, typography, or the law of libel, while in their spare time they dream, as all good cubs do, of next semester and how they'll run the school publications.

One semester of journalism has trained them to answer when someone yells, "Hey, you!" They are rapidly learning the vital diplomacy needed by reporters and they try to keep from under the feet of the regular staff.

Their office hours are from 8 A.M. until 4:30, or whenever the paper "goes to bed". Nevertheless, these Oracle youngsters are hard to discourage. They generally like excitement and aren't afraid of hard work.

Polar Bear Staff

CO-EDITORS

"Hi-ho, hi-ho, it's off to work we go!" is definitely the theme song of the Polar Bear staff this semester. In spite of many headaches — and heartaches — the staff enjoyed the work.

Those Who Rule . . .

DNM

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The North High Student Council is just that — a council of students representing every home room in school, meeting every week to discuss the activities and the welfare of the whole school.

The most interesting and important things done this semester aside from the routine work have been suggested by and carried out under the leadership of the Red Cross and the Service Committees.

Among these activities were the packing of the Christmas boxes for British children, the collecting of money for the City Community Chest, and the offerings of many bushels of food and supplies for the Des Moines Childrens Home. The latest urge of this committee is for hundreds of girls and boys to begin knitting.

The President of the Council is Bonnie Beaty.

The Judicial Board is made up of the Vice President of the Student Council and six members appointed by the Executive Committee of the Council. It tries all cases of discipline referred to it, makes decisions concerning questions of interpretation, revision, and adjustment in special cases relating to the Activities system. The Board operates under the advisership of Miss Adams.

On each Tuesday morning, during first and second hours, after the stamp sales in the home rooms, the Finance Committee convenes in Mr. Thompson's office. There it checks the stamp money and imprints the familiar green "N" on each and every stamp book so that on the following morning the stampholders of the school have their pass to another week of school activities at no additional drag on the pocketbook.

A weekly comparison is made between the different home rooms in regard to the percentage of paid-up stamp books.

Library Committee

Our school library is filled with books, both educational and fictional. To serve the student and make the library a more enjoyable place is the duty of the Library Committee, under the supervision of Mrs. Long. If help is needed in the selection of a book any of the people mentioned below will be glad to assist you.

CONCENTRATION

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

FIRST ROW: Mary Louise Sullivan,
Mary McGraw.

SECOND ROW: Marjorie Whitaker, Ruth
Schultz, Bonnie Beaty.

THIRD ROW: Mary Lease, Beverly Routt.

FOURTH ROW: Lura Long, Helen Skow.

NURSE'S ASSISTANTS

Myra Marks, Jean Hartsook, Suzanne
Cullen, Alberta Crouse, Miss Alice
Galvin, Corrine Derrickson.

Nurse's Assistants

In paying a visit to the Nurse's office, you are greeted by some attractive girls who assist Miss Galvin with your needs. No medicine is given you, but your bruises are bound and you may stretch out on a cot and rest.

The girls also weigh and measure anyone who asks for this service.

Service Committee

FIRST ROW: Lois Smith, Phyllis Newburn, Vivian Feintech, Miss Baldwin, Bernice Friedman, Ruth Hockenberg, Ruth Gottfried.
STANDING: Ruth Ellis, Pat Nemmers, Frances Green, Delores Ginsberg, Eleanor Coffun, Arlene Choate.

Safety Committee

FIRST ROW: Margie Atherton, Velda Johnson, Ruth Hockenberg.
SECOND ROW: Maxine Van Dyke, Janice Kalwishky, Rosemarie Johnston, Patty Jenks, Shirley Khile, Myra Marks.
THIRD ROW: Shirley Bigham, Marian Skaggs, Margie Baber, Maxine White, Frances Conrow, Jeanette Benfer.
FOURTH ROW: Tom Kelly, Irving Hoskins, John Kuskulis, Jimmie Avgerinos, R. M. Anderson.

Hostess Committee

Those attractively dressed girls in the lunch room are really there for other purposes than just to look at.

To keep order at all times — to ring the chimes — to brush up broken dishes — are just some of their pleasant (?) duties.

Lewis Ford and Barbara Winterrowd pose as "happy dancers".

Social Committee

FIRST ROW: Pat Knight, Miss Essie M. Whirry, James McDonald, Emma Jane Lampman, Neal Ashby, Frank Wheeler, Louise Sullivan, F. O. Johnson, Dickie Strickler, Clarice Mason, Eugene Stradley, Phyllis Knight, Duane Norman, Phyllis Milne.

Planning and insuring the success of Fun Nights, social hours and special school parties are the Social Committee's jobs. They also put up poster notices, encourage the bashful to dance, and on special occasions, sell refreshments.

Pubicity Committee

FIRST ROW: Mary Jamison, Beatrice Newcomb, Ila Astleford, Marion Van Laningham.

SECOND ROW: Lloyd Otto, Jr., Kay Marshall, Dorothy Dieterich, Miriam Mosher, Jeanette Cottingham, Betty Freeding, Sylvia Moscove.

MOVIE OPERATORS: Frank Lorey, Paul Martin, Kenneth Hoskinson, Jim Vahnauer and Mr. Worden, Adviser.

Planning and printing posters for school events is the chief duty of the Publicity Committee.

This committee, which is made up of Oracle cubs, works in co-ordination with any other committee that might need its services.

Posters are printed on a small press. Type must be set by hand, backwards, of course, and inked before every using.

Marion Van Laningham, journalism teacher, is the adviser.

The movie operators, supervised by Mr. Worden, perform many duties to make it possible for students to have and enjoy a movie every noon. They are always on their toes, watching for fires, breaks in the film, and other possible emergencies.

Scholarship Committee

FIRST ROW: Harriette Steads, Dorothy Dieterich, Miss Craig, Patty Walker.
STANDING: Jeanette Battrell, Shirley Laing, Bernice Friedman.

Citizenship Committee

FIRST ROW: Marilyn Zimmermann, Mary Boller, Virginia Chance, Elizabeth O'Hare, Dorothy Nance.
SECOND ROW: William Chapman, Louise Poland, Irving Hoskins, Alice Adams, E. E. Lorey.

During this semester the Citizenship Committee has done the following things:

1. Planned and carried out, with the co-operation of various other committees, a successful friendship week.
2. Made plans for at least one discussion of boy and girl relations to be held in the form of a student forum.

Office Assistants

An office assistant must be efficient, quiet and alert since her duties are varied and almost innumerable. The care of telephone messages, switch-board calls, the assisting of teachers, pupils, and visitors who come to the office keep her constantly busy.

She often helps with the attendance, correspondence, and records of all sorts. She serves in every way possible and lightens the work in general for the administration staff.

FIRST ROW: Louise Sullivan.
 SECOND ROW: Mary Boller, Lois Smith, Virginia Wiazeck, Kathaleen Freeze.
 THIRD ROW: Mary Catherine Miller, Betty Stanton, Virginia Standers, Bonnie Zavatsky, Eileen Moses, Rose Carpino.
 FIFTH ROW: Pat West, Betty Danielson, Mary Norman, Jeanette Cottingham, Betty Tillmount, Norma Betts, Jean Newbern.
 SIXTH ROW: Mildred West, Esther Westlake.

Costume Committee

FIRST ROW: Esther Lesner, Irene Gurnas, Colleen Horner, Jean Hagman, Mary Catherine Miller, Mildred Van Gorkom, Doris Johnson.
 SECOND ROW: Dorothy Sherman, Florence Quigley, Eileen Ferguson.
 STANDING: Mary McGraw, Joyce Wood, Pat Hynds, Mary Ellen Reese, Miss Genevieve Moore.

The most important responsibility of the Costume Committee is fitting clothes for the All-School Play. The Committee has charge of the costuming of class plays and assemblies. They likewise are responsible for the athletic monograms.

Usher Committee

FIRST ROW: Bob Coleman, Bob Sommers, Don Wieters, Dale Forrest Marvin, Sohreurs, Jack Chapman.
 SECOND ROW: Dick Morris, James Beattie, Bud Clark, Maurice Richardson, Al Putney, Adam Johnson.
 THIRD ROW: Robert Earle, Bill Kochheiser, Dick McKinney, Earl Stearns, Alvin Grund, Donald Read.
 FIFTH ROW: Tom Kelly, Francis Hague, Jack Powell, Harold Saylor, Roy Ostrem.
 SIXTH ROW: Bud Ellis, Wendell Lawhead, Burton Press, Jack Dagget, Warren Robbins.
 SEVENTH ROW: Dave Allen, Roy List, Ray McAdam, James McDonald, Martin Hanzlik.

Ushers help at noon movies, assemblies, all-school plays, basketball games, state teachers' conventions, state basket ball tournaments, Drake Relays, Young People's Symphony Concerts, and frequent outside jobs. Mr. Donald Reed is the adviser.

Ticket Committee

The Ticket Committee's work covers the "admission end" of all social functions in the school. These are noon movies, social hours, fun nights, and All-School plays.

FIRST ROW: Keith Shoemaker, Jerry Goodman.
 SECOND ROW: Albert Polito, Dick Cloud.
 THIRD ROW: Bob Wallace, Bill Chapman, Bill Fulton.
 FOURTH ROW: Fred Nicken, Russ Wilson, Ralph Fry.

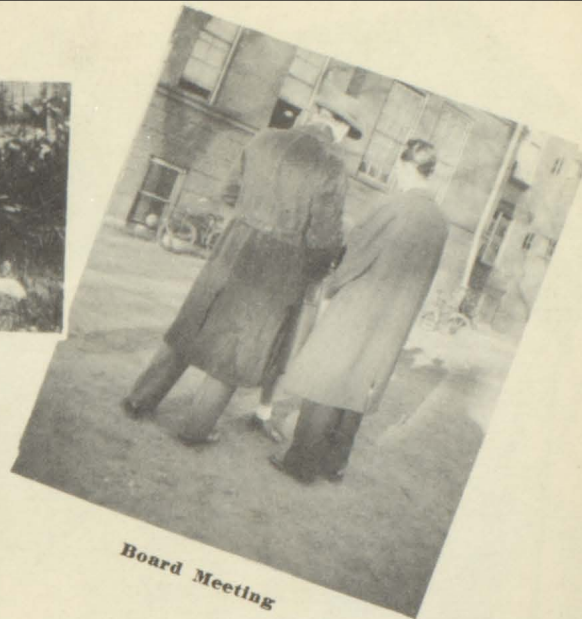

Service With a Smile

"On a Summery, Summery Day"

Board Meeting

Will . . .

Darlene Peterson and Luree Phipps leave behind their athletic tendencies to Ruth Gowey and Arlee Phipps.

Rachelle Chader bequeaths her many darling clothes to all the girls at North who wonder what they are going to wear the next day.

Phyllis Wood and Karl Pallwitz leave their responsible positions as class treasurers to the following mathematical minded officers.

Ruth Ellis and Colleen Kelly leave their all-around swellness to Louise Sullivan and Lois Smith. Bud Mantz throws his worries of making up the Oracle out of the window, pitying the person who catches them.

Patricia Morr, better known as "Red" leaves her natural locks to Mary McGraw who promises to brush them daily.

Joan McIntire wills the nickname of "pest" to any other non-journalistic student who insists on loafing around the Oracle room during the time of a dead-line.

Harold Lundgren and Melvin Meyer leave their standing as the senior class "He Men" to Bill Lyons and Damon Shultz who are in the following graduating class.

Dan Soesbe bequeaths his gracious nature and ability for playing good tricks to Westley Boofter . . . you have something there Wes.

Scotty McDonald, Frank Wheeler and Bart Peddicord leave behind their high-powered school spirit to Sam Shiffler, Dick Cloud, Bill Jones and all those other boys who have such a good time when North teams are playing.

The four "B's" Betty Cole, Keith, Frace and Bierwirth leave their positions as "attached women" to those young things in North who don't even have boy friends.

Betty Knowlton bequeaths her memories of a good time to Ralph Fry.

Norman Ginsberg wills his absent-mindedness to Harold Caplan.

Carmen Kriess and Doris Richardson leave their note books full of foreign correspondents' addresses to Joyce Aduddell.

Jeanne Gabel and Imo Gibbs offer to leave their "Gobs" in the navy to Shirley McMullen and Betty Pickering.

Helen Gowdy bequeaths her neatly combed blond hair to Joyce Wood.

Jeanne Keller wills the admiring glances which she always receives to Betty Livingston.

Emery Jackson bequeaths his humorous nature to Tom Kelly.

Bertha Katchel leaves to join Don Turner.

Betty (Dutch) Kleywegt leaves her lovelorn experience, Mr. Van Laningham and his cokes to the next Features Editor.

Gertrude Shaw, Donna Webber and Undine Southworth, bequeath their high mental capacities to all those who worry around report card time.

We are glad that Barbara Peddicord wills her long daggar-like fingernails to Esta Tempores, who hasn't clipped her own for some time.

Wayne Platter leaves ----- no kidding? Roy Heggen and Roger Glasgow "Pass the Buck" to the next Oracle columnist.

Bessie Boyd, Dorothy Thomas and Jean Mulchy will their cheerful dispositions to all the "Sour-pusses" at North.

Lorraine Crossland and Bill Patterson leave ----- as they came. Ah! Love -----

Doris Breheny bequeaths her renditions of the popular "song hits" to Helen Bartlett.

Sally Crosby leaves her famous "Vim and Vigor" to whoever wants it.

Wendell Lawhead wills to all his underclassmen his oratorical ability to speak forever on without enlightening his listeners.

Billy Lewis and Don Coon bequeath their shyness to Gene Ward and Ray McAdam. (They won't even wink at us.)

Sid Pruce and Dean Storey leave their titles as two of the "Best Dressed" to the boys here who insist upon turning up their pantlegs to show off their masculine physique.

Raymond Ancell wills his hobby of eating and sleeping, whenever, wherever and however he may be, to all who come sneaking in at midnight starved.

Pete Peterson wills his hypnotic influence to over-power Mr. Meier and Miss Hovey to Gene Taylor, who we hope won't need it.

Robert (Bob) Bobb leaves behind his double-talk "handle". Apologies to Simone Simone.

Virginia Jones bequeaths her many school romances to her sister, Nora, who should pass them on to someone less fortunate than herself.

Beverly Scalf wills her quietude to Betty McGuire.

Harriette Greenwood bequeaths her daily "conversational battles" with Mr. Besley to Dorothy Sherman who has the same trouble with Mr. Van Laningham.

Ed Friar leaves his mother, who is Study Hall teacher, here.

Dick Fuller and Winnie Devlin bequeath their talked about "purty blue eyes" to Harold Davis.

Without father's permission, Bob McCaughtry wills his little old car.

Orlando Rua leaves behind all of his admiring females.

Ida Mae Rogers wills her tiny shoe measurements to people like us who squeeze into "the larger sizes."

Ruth Marie Spong offers to leave her "platinum" blond tresses to Ann Royal.

Irvin Ellis wills his retiring nature to Ruth Ann Wright.

Fred Nickens wills his resemblance to Jackie Cooper to those who wish upon a star every night, hoping to be like a movie star.

Photogenic Bill Brown leaves his features to brother Bob, who already claims the same.

Phyllis Love wills her position as home room president to the next lucky person in line.

Mary Lease wills her neat appearance to Audrey Luburger.

Pauline Schoonover leaves that gift of "growing on people" to Mary Roberts.

Patty Smith came from Omaha to will her many friends here to the Gurnas sisters, Mary and Irene.

Helen Tannus wills her swell sportsmanship to Betty Campbell.

It's True... How few people realize the work there is to putting a newspaper or a yearbook together — How those who talk the most say the least — How some of the best looks and personalities in school are just fronts for a doublecross — How surprised the students would be if they knew just how much the faculty pretends not to hear and not to see — That the teachers get just as tired of the students as the students get of the teachers. (though both the students and faculty seem to forget that members of the faculty were ever young once) — How little you really know about people, but how much you can learn by working with them — How much fun the senior year is...

Best Wishing... To the faculty (and no hard feelings)... To those, who will enter the service or have entered the service — To those who could have graduated last time or this time and hope to graduate in June — To those with whom I've worked upon the Oracle and the Polar Bear — All those who make North the best in the city.

I Wish (As we all do) that I could have the past three years to do over — I could trust my friends and also myself — that someday I will meet all my friends again — that all of you may realize — your hopes and ambitions — that those who come after us will have as good a time in school as we have had, but that they will get more work done. (If it is possible to do both.)

Laugh of the Year... It seems Dave (lost in the fog) Pearl fell asleep in study hall as he was picked as the one most likely to succeed — in cleaning up the Oracle Room. When Dave industriously (that means he had one eye half-open) began to sweep Jack, (Quiz Kid) Abraham let his curiosity run rampant (that means practically the same as doing 60 in a 40 mile zone) and popped the question "Dave, dear", he asked "are you on the N.Y.A.?" Dave's reply was not a simple "Yes" or "No"; it was not even "Why don't you talk to father?" It was... "No, darling, I don't even belong to the union."

Mr. O'Niel glared at his young hopeful: "Another bite like that young man and you'll leave the table," he said.

Joe (aged seven) answered: "Another bite like that and I'll be through."

Jack: Grandpa, we've been arguing whether the clock stands or sits on the mantel.

Grandpa: It is half-past eight by the clock and it is only a quarter to eight; therefore, I should say it lies on the mantel.

"He are just the worst of boys,
Him break I heart and steal me toys.
Me wish that him would go away,
To not come back, for always stay.
But if he do, I no have joys,
Cause Golly, me sure do like boys!"

Smith: I got that crate of chickens you sent the wife all right, but next time I wish you'd fasten them up more carefully. Coming up from the station the beastly things got out. I spent hours scouring the neighborhood, and only found ten of them in the end.

Jones: Hush, old man; I only sent six.

Profiteering

One day one of the greatest bores of the club said to one of his fellow members, "John, I have been greatly insulted. Just as I passed that group over there I overheard someone say he would give me $50 to resign from the club."

"Hold out for a hundred," counseled the other, "you'll get it."

Two to One He Didn't

A mother left three apples on the table and returning later found that one remained.

"Bobby" she demanded sternly of her young son, "have you eaten those apples?"

"I didn't touch one," he answered.

"But there were three there and now there is only one."

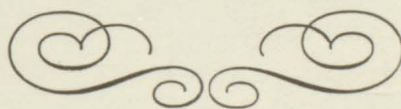

"Well, that is the one I didn't touch."

The elephants famed cause
Cause he never forgets,
But always he leads from the rear
When he sets.

Wiggle wiggle goes the fish,
To flip his tail maybe his wish,
But, girls, when walking, you don't swim!
Why undulate with so much vim?

The panda when sitting slumps down in his chair,
No doubt he still thinks that he's crouched in his lair.
But girls who fall into his round-shouldered pose
Look very ungainly, as they are, Heaven knows!
